

QUESTIONS I NEED TO ASK

Use this page to list questions you will want to ask your college or university contacts about the support and services you will need. The best way to locate this information is to go into the university or college's website and search "learning disabilities services". They are required by law to have support staff for students with LDs.

Person I should contact:

Questions I need to ask:

Person I should contact:

Questions I need to ask:

