Everything you need to know about school councils

Purpose
School councils play an important role in student success. They encourage a strong partnership between the school and the family and help parents become actively involved in the education of their children. School councils help good schools become better.

School councils are expected to:
- Advise the principal and, where appropriate, the board
- Place the interests of students first
- Support the Peel board’s school success planning goals
- Encourage parent and community involvement in the educational system
- Promote positive attitudes towards public education

Who can be a member of school council?
Parents or guardians of students enrolled at the school may be a member of the school council. Peel board employees can be parent representatives, unless they are employed at the school attended by their children. Council membership should reflect the diversity of the school community.

How is a school council organized?
The majority of members on school council must be parents or guardians of students enrolled at the school. School councils will have a minimum of nine members, or eleven members if there are student representatives. Student representatives are required in secondary schools but optional in elementary schools.

Each school council should include:

How to recruit new members
Make school council as visible as possible in the school. Welcome new families and develop strategies to connect with parents from every community group. Let parents know about council meetings and share information about council decisions and activities. Ensure that meetings are informative, efficient and held at convenient times.

Election
School council elections must be held in the first 30 days of the school year. A person may be a candidate or vote in a school council election if he/she is a parent/guardian of a student enrolled at the school. Parents are elected as parent representatives on council.

An Election Planning Committee should be established in May/June to plan and hold the elections in the fall of the next school year. At least 14 days before the election, the principal will give written notice of the election time, date and location to the school community. Eligible voters may cast one vote for each position.

Term of office
The term of office for school council members is one year. Elections take place in the fall (within the first 30 days of the school year) and council members remain on council until the first meeting following the next year’s elections.

What is the role of school council?
School councils advise principals, superintendents and school trustees on educational topics and issues, including:
- School calendar
- Code of behaviour and dress codes
- School program priorities and curriculum delivery
- Budget priorities
- Selection criteria for principals and vice principals
- Extracurricular activities
- School-based services
- Fundraising policies
- Conflict resolution policies
- Planning for improvement
- Board policies, guidelines and new education initiatives that affect student achievement or board accountability to parents

School council recommendations
The principal must consider all school council recommendations. The school council will be advised of any actions taken in response to those recommendations. The principal may refer recommendations about broader educational issues to the board.
