

GLENFOREST IB BUS PROGRAM

Congratulations on your acceptance into the International Baccalaureate® (IB) program at Glenforest Secondary School.

Bus to School Program offers parent funded bus services to support the International Baccalaureate® (IB) program at Glenforest Secondary School. Bus to School Program has well-deserved reputation for quality transportation service and helping parents and students in achieving their goals. During our history of school transportation of many years, we have consistently demonstrated the ability to transport thousands of students in Regional Programs to and from schools safely as well as cost & time effectively. We have partnered with most of the schools in Peel District School Board that offer Regional Learning Choices Programs. Currently our services are availed by the students of 17 schools in the Region of Peel & Halton.

Our goal is to provide safe, reliable and efficient transportation service that also helps the students to focus on their education and give parents peace of mind by offering a secure and affordable transportation service.

COST AND PAYMENT OPTIONS

Bus to School Program will provide the busing at a minimal and affordable cost and is committed to provide its services for 2018/19 School Year based on the Ministry Approved Board's School Year Calendar. Cost for 2 way service is $1800 per year plus applicable taxes. Payment can also be made in 5 instalments.
