

Course Information Sheet

Course Title International Business –University/College

Course Code BBB4M0

What do you do in this course?	What you do NOT do in this course.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learn about the importance of international business and trade in the global economy • Combination of group and independent work • Use computers to complete variety of assignments and course activities • Discuss current trends affecting the world of international business Develop a variety of skills used in today's business world including oral communication skills via class presentations (both group and independent)	No advanced math Essays

Recommended knowledge/skills for successful completion
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability to follow written and verbal instructions • Time-management, leadership and communication skills • Ability to work well (be responsible and accountable) both independently and in group situations • Teamwork and collaboration skills • Solid research and analysis skills • Attention to detail • Apply both critical thinking and problem-solving skills • An interest in how business is conducted in both Canada and in countries around the world

Other (e.g. homework commitment)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Homework is typically in the form of regular assignments – some time is given in class to work on assignments, but whatever is not finished in class must be finished at home. • Access to computers and internet – not all assignments require this access, but some do. Students who do not have access to computers at home should be prepared to use the computer facilities at school to complete their work. • Test preparation

Please note: This form will assist students/parents in selecting courses that reflect the aptitudes and interests of the student. Be sure to check the common course calendar for a required prerequisite.