

Course Information Sheet

Course Title English – Locally Developed

Course Code ENG1L0

What do you do in this course?	What you do NOT do in this course.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Develop reading, writing, and oral language skills with an emphasis on non-fiction text.• Units include: reading strategies, workplace/practical life skills (focus on workplace safety), financial literacy(budgeting) and research (emergency planning).• Participate in reading a variety of books both in groups and on their own (3 short novels).• Assignments focus on reading comprehension, writing supported opinion and responding to non-fiction and fiction text.• There is a final examination and research report.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students do not write a research essay.• They do not read the script of a play.• They do not study Shakespeare.

Recommended knowledge/skills for successful completion

- Develop learning skills and their link to Canada's Employability Skills Profile.
- Willingness to actively participate in class discussion and group work.
- Practice a variety of independent reading strategies and further develop how to write, edit and revise supported opinion paragraphs.
- Ability to choose reading and writing strategies appropriate for the task and to discuss the reasons for these choices.

Other (e.g. homework commitment)

- Students complete course work in class.

Please note: This form will assist students/parents in selecting courses that reflect the aptitudes and interests of the student. Be sure to check the common course calendar for a required prerequisite.