

Course Information Sheet

Course Title English – Workplace

Course Code ENG4E0

What do you do in this course?	What you do NOT do in this course.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Develop reading, writing, oral language skills with an emphasis on non-fiction text.• The units include reading strategies, workplace/practical life skills(Human Rights Code), financial literacy (apprenticeship/school loans & bursaries), and research (financial scams/pyramid schemes).• Participate in reading a variety of books both in groups and on their own (3 short novels)• Assignments focus on reading comprehension, writing a series of supported opinion paragraphs, and responding to fiction and non-fiction text.• A final examination and research report.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• No research essay• No drama script.• No study of Shakespeare.• No formal study of literary devices.

Recommended knowledge/skills for successful completion

- Students develop learning skills and their link to Canada's Employability Skills Profile.
- Students will actively participate in class discussion and group work.
- Students will practice a variety of independent reading strategies and learn how to write, edit and revise a series of supported opinion paragraphs.
- Students must be able to choose reading and writing strategies appropriate for the task and to discuss the reasons for their choices.

Other (e.g. homework commitment)

Students will have 1-2 hours of homework a week.

Please note: This form will assist students/parents in selecting courses that reflect the aptitudes and interests of the student. Be sure to check the common course calendar for a required prerequisite.