

Getting your questions answered

If you have any questions, concerns or suggestions about your teen's education, or about education in general, anyone with the Peel District School Board is happy to help.

Here's where to start:

- If you have specific questions or concerns about the education of your son or daughter, the first person to talk to is your teen's teacher. The teacher or principal can provide information about specific strategies being used to monitor your teen's progress.
- If you have questions about the curriculum, start with your teen's teacher. Of course, Principal Linda Galen and any of our vice-principals are also available to answer your questions.
- If after you speak with the principal, you still have unanswered questions, talk to our school's superintendent of education, Pat Noble, who can be reached at 905-451-2862.
- All curriculum material is available at our school. If you have general questions about curriculum, call the Curriculum and Instruction Support Services department of the board at 905-890-1010 (or 1-800-668-1146) ext. 2559.
- Your local school trustee is elected to represent your interests and is always ready to hear and discuss your suggestions or concerns. If you'd like to contact your trustee directly, Harinder Malhi who can be reached by email at harinder.malhi@peelsb.com or by phone at 416-659-0813 To find out more about the role of trustees, visit the "Trustee" section of the board's website at www.peelschools.org.
