

Course Information Sheet

Course Title Mathematics for Work & Everyday Life - Workplace

Course Code MEL4E0

What do you do in this course?	What you do NOT do in this course.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will investigate questions involving the use of statistics • Apply the concept of probability to solve problems involving familiar situations • Investigate accommodation costs, create household budgets, and prepare a personal income tax return Use proportional reasoning, complete estimates, measure, and apply geometric concepts to create designs

Recommended knowledge/skills for successful completion
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding of how to count money • Proficiency with using the calculator for the basic operations (addition, subtraction, division, multiplication) • Willingness to put forth a great effort in both theory work as well as practical applications • Effective communication & time-management skills, presentation/oral skills • Developing leadership skills • Responsible, personable and enjoy working with other classmates in a challenging setting

Other (eg. Homework commitment)
Students are expected to complete 20-30 minutes of homework each day Commitment to attendance, homework/assignments, being on time & prepared for each class

Please note: This form will assist students/parents in selecting courses that reflect the aptitudes and interests of the student. Be sure to check the common course calendar for a required prerequisite.