Studies
COURSE INFORMATION
COURSE: Canadian History since World War I (CHC2D0) Gr.10 Academic

Course Description:

This course explores social, economic, and political developments and events and their impact on the lives of different groups in Canada since 1914. Students will examine the role of conflict and cooperation in Canadian society, Canada's evolving role within the global community, and the impact of various individuals, organizations, and events on Canadian identity, citizenship, and heritage. They will develop their ability to apply the concepts of historical thinking and the historical inquiry process, including the interpretation and analysis of evidence, when investigating key issues and events in Canadian history since 1914.

Course Overarching Learning Goals:

By the end of the course, students will:
Goal One: Students formulate questions, that reflect concepts of historical thinking, to guide investigations into issues, events, and/or developments in Canadian history since 1914.

Goal Two: Students select and organize relevant evidence and information on aspects of Canadian history since 1914 from a variety of primary and secondary sources, ensuring that their sources reflect multiple perspectives. Students assess the credibility of sources of information relevant to investigations.

Goal Three: Students use concepts of historical thinking to interpret and analyze evidence and information relevant to investigations of historical issues, events and/or developments in Canada since 1914

Goal Four: Students evaluate and synthesize their findings, using concepts of historical thinking, to formulate conclusions and/or make informed judgments or predictions about historical issues, events, and/or developments in Canada since 1914.

Goal Five: Students communicate their ideas, arguments and conclusions about historical issues, events and/or developments in Canada since 1914 using formats and styles (text forms) that suit the purpose and audience.

Assessment and Evaluation - Key Terms and Definitions

Assessment for Learning: The ongoing process of gathering and interpreting evidence about student learning for the purpose of determining where students are in their learning, where they need to go, and how best to get there(e.g. portfolios, observations, conversation, Non-graded quizzes, pre-tests, minute papers, exit tickets, written assignments, concept maps, interviews, progress monitoring, performance). The information gathered is used by teachers to provide feedback and adjust instruction and by students to focus their learning. Assessment for learning is a high-yield instructional strategy that takes place while the student is still learning and serves to promote learning.

Assessment as Learning: The process of developing and supporting student metacognition. Students are actively engaged in this assessment process: that is, they monitor their own learning (e.g. learning logs, Metacognitive questions and self-assessment using Graphic Organizers, Interviews, Conferences); use assessment feedback from teacher, self, and peers to determine next steps; and set individual learning goals (e.g. goal setting). Assessment as learning requires students to have a clear understanding of the learning goals and success criteria (e.g. co-constructing rubrics/check lists, self assessment, peer assessment).

Assessment of Learning: The process of collecting and interpreting evidence for the purpose of summarizing learning at a given point in time, to make judgements about the quality of student learning on the basis of established criteria, and to assign a value to represent that quality. (e.g. test, summative assignment) The information gathered may be used to communicate the student's achievement to parents, other teachers, students themselves, and others. It occurs at or near the end of a cycle of learning.

(Assessments are based on TRIANGULATION OF EVIDENCE - observations, conversations and products - produced and collected over time)

Success Criteria for completing this course:

Student Responsibilities:

Students responsibilities are a cornerstone of academic success and include: attendance, punctuality, timely completion of homework and assignments, and academic integrity. Students are responsible for: self-advocacy; completion and submission of their own work; submission of required assignments on the assigned due date; striving for excellence; and completion of course requirements.

Learning Skills:

It is an expectation that each student is assessed not only on their academic achievement but also on their Learning Skills. These skills include: Responsibility, Organization, Independent Work, Collaboration, Initiative, and Self Regulation. Learning skills will not be factored into the grade for this course but will appear on the report card. It is important to remember that the development and consistent practice of these skills will influence academic achievement.

Late and Missed Assignments

Please see the Policy on Absence of Evidence of Student Achievement as outlined in the schools solution manual

Plagiarism and Cheating

Please see the Policy on Plagiarism and Cheating in the schools solution manual

Homework, Assignments and Effective Communication

To earn a credit students have a responsibility to submit sufficient evidence of understanding within established deadlines. It is in the student's best interest to submit evidence of learning at every opportunity that is provided, so that his/her grade accurately reflects what was learned. In the event that a student produces insufficient evidence in the key understandings for the course, the entire credit is at stake.

Movie Viewing Permission

We plan to show PG / PG-13 / PG-14 rated movies in full or as excerpts to enhance our class curriculum. Our school requires parental permission for your son/daughter to view movies that are used in our curriculum, or selected by our teachers, which are rated PG, PG-13, and PG-14. We believe showing your son/daughter certain movies enable them to benefit from another medium as a resource in their study of Canadian history. Movies, along with our hands-on activities such as reading, in-class discussion, and research projects, give students a well-rounded opportunity to discover Canada and the world. Movies go beyond dry facts and help bring events "alive". Be assured that we will use proper discretion when showing these movies. Please check "Yes" or "No" below:

___ Yes, I approve my child's viewing of curriculum and school appropriate movies rated PG / PG-13 / PG-14.

___ No, I do not approve my child's viewing of curriculum and school appropriate movies. I understand alternate learning experiences will be provided for my child while the movie is being watched.
