

Vocal Music – Jazz, Grade 10 - Open
AMJ 200

This course is designed to give student the opportunity to explore singing and stage presence. Students will learn vocal techniques, warm-ups and improvisation while analyzing and performing different styles of vocal music from the 60s to the present. Students will also discover the role singing plays in reflecting the culture that produces that style. Vocal students will improve their performance skills through larger ensemble, small group, and solo opportunities.
