

Visual Arts: Digital Media (Computer), Grade 10 – Open
AWS 200

This course introduces techniques and concepts for creating art and design works using computers and a variety of digital media. Students will work in the fields of digital photography, hand drawn and computer animation, graphic design, and advertising. They will develop critical thinking skills through several fields of study of art history, and a greater confidence with the creative process.

Prerequisite: None