

Core French, Grade 12 – University Preparation

FSF 4U0

This pre-university course draws on a variety of themes to promote the development of communicative competence; in particular writing and speaking. Students will expand and consolidate their oral skills through discussion of literature (le Petit Prince), culture (France and Paris) and world issues. Students will write for different audiences and purposes, to include summaries, opinion pieces, film reviews and a formal speech. In keeping with the 21st century technology mandate, students will be encouraged to use digital platforms for their presentations.

Prerequisite: Core French, Grade 11, University Preparation (FSF 3U0)
