

Construction Technology, Grade 10 – Open TCJ 200

In construction technology courses, students will learn about construction, designing and fabricating at an intermediate level and will gain experience with the tools, equipment, and processes commonly used in the field.

In this hands on course students will be building a variety of projects such as;

- Wooden Name project
- Trinket Box
- Folding Stool
- Serving Tray

Prerequisite: None